The results of the 2018 Local Government Council Elections for Port Lincoln has been declared by Returning Officer, Mick Sherry from Electoral Commission of South Australia on Monday 19 November 2018 and City of Port Lincoln welcomes the new Elected Council:

Mayor

Brad Flaherty

Area Councillor

Faye Davis

Linda Davies

Andrea Broadfoot

Geoff Dodd

Peter Jolley

Valerie Staunton

Robyn Rowsell

Peter Linn

Jack Ritchie

Council would like to thank the Councillors that have chosen not to nominate for another term for their commitment and time given to represent their community on Council and welcomes those who have been elected for the first time.

Stephen Rufus Chief Executive Officer said, "I am looking forward to working with the new Elected Council to engage with the community to establish a revised strategic direction that builds upon projects and achievements over the years, while continuing the provision of services and infrastructure that meet the needs of our community and improving community wellbeing in our City".

Council also acknowledges the other candidates who were not successful and thanks them for their interest in representing their community. The voting return rate was 43.32% of eligible electors in the Port Lincoln Council area, which is a decrease of 2.28% from the 2014 Council elections and 4.48% from 2010.
